VI. TEAM REPORTS:

- All teams reported that they had just recently started practice or were starting this week. All was going well for the teams so far.

VII. OLD BUSINESS:

N. Challenger Soccer Camp

- There were 96 participants for camp.
- Camp went well and we received a lot of positive feedback.

VII. NEW BUSINESS:

O. Coaches clinic

- The club will host a coach's clinic on Wednesday, August 16, 2006 at the 179 fields.

P. Other Clinics

- A F license coaches clinic will be held in Columbia, Wednesday, August 16, 2006;
- A referee clinic will be held August 19-20, 2006

Q. MO State Cup

- Any U13-U18 girl's team wanting to register needs to do so by September 1, 2006. This year the format has changed and it is a single elimination tournament. So each team is only guaranteed one game.

R. Christmas Parade

- The club will need volunteers to organize this if we are going to put a float in this year's parade.

VIII. OTHER BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE THE BOARD:

- Rob Davis reminded everyone that elections will be held in October for the positions of Secretary and 1st vice. Anyone wishing to run for these offices should contact a board member. Rob will update the website with this information.
- JT Schokker reminded coaches that if they needed game stickers for CMSL league games he had some.
- Cindy Hassler made a request that we allow U15 and over teams to roster a max of 20 players for our tournaments. MYSA has changed their roster size to 20 as well. There were no objections from the floor. The board will consider this request.

IX. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business for discussion, JT Schokker made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Ross Strobe, meeting adjourned.
